EXCITEMENT IN LYON.

Fiendish Assault on a Five-Year-Old Girl.

SAM MILLER CLOSELY PURSUED.

May Be Lynched If He Is Caught.
—Was Attacked By the Girl's Father.

THE ASSAULT MADE HIS ESCAPE.

There was great excitement at Ed-dyville yesterday when it became known that Sam Miller, a negro, had attempted to assault the little daughter of John B. Withers some time during the forenoon. The little girl, who is only five years old, was playing around near her home where Miller was chopping wood, when the brute suddenly assaulted her. The child's cries frightened the negro and he released her, but threatened her and warned her not to tell any one what he had tried to do. In terror of the negro, no doubt, the child did not disclose to any one the fiendish attempt he had made until last evening, when she told her mother of it. As soon as the father learned of the matter he started in search of Miller, and finding him in the street, attacked him with a knife and would probably have killed him had it not been for the interference of bystanders, who did not understand the cause of the attack. This interference gave Miller a chance to escape. He is being hunted now by determined men, and Lyon county may witness a lynching when he is caught. Miller has heretofore been regarded as a quiet, inoffensive colored man. A posse was still in pursuit of him this morning.

ROADS WILL BE CONDEMNED

Unless They Make Terms With the Fayette County Fiscal Court.

Lexington, June 23.—The committee appointed by the Fayette county fiscal court to assess a valuation on the Harrodsburg pike, looking toward condemning the same, reported to the court yesterday, having fixed the valuation of the road at $10,000. The company has been notified of the price and unless it is accepted by Saturday the road will be condemned and sold at auction. Propositions were made to the owners of both the Richmond and Georgetown pikes, and it is believed that these roads will be freed at the next meeting of the fiscal court on Saturday. This will leave only four pay roads in the county.

FOUND DEAD IN A FIELD.

James Cole Supposed To Have Been Killed By An Accidental Fall.

Georgetown, Ky., June 22.—Shortly before noon today a negro found the dead body of a man at the foot of the stone wall in the corner just where the branch goes under the culvert of the Frankfort pike. The body was found to be that of James Cole, a well-known man of this city. In his forehead there was an ugly wound. The head was within a few inches of a sharp pointed rock that is projected from the ground. It is supposed that he had fallen over the wall from the road above, a distance of twenty-five or thirty feet, and struck his head on the rock below. He was last seen at a late hour Monday night.

GEN. GORDON

Was Re-Elected Commander-in-Chief.

Nashville, June 23.—Gen. John B. Gordon was today re-elected Commander-in-Chief of the Confederate Veterans' Association. Unfortunately for the thorough good feeling and pleasant memory of the occasion, political matters were brought into the discussion of the office and the mention of Gen. Buckner's name is greeted with objection on account of his sound money sentiments. This is one of the unfortunate facts connected with the reunion.

There are four cities contesting for the honor of entertaining the Veterans next year. These are Louisville, Baltimore, St. Louis and New Orleans. The claims of each are being vigorously urged, and so far as can be ascertained the race is between Louisville and New Orleans.

BOLD EXPRESS ROBBERY.

A Lone Bandit Secures $250 From Messenger Brannon.

Russellville, Ky., June 23.—Train No. 102 on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, from Memphis to Louisville, was robbed at St. Bethlehem, nine miles south of Guthrie, last night about 9:45 o'clock. A man with a black mask over his face went into express car and held up the messenger, L. C. Brannon, and secured $250 worth of money and valuables. He then jumped out of the car door and went off into the country. Bloodhounds are on the track and the railroad officials are doing all they can to capture the thief.

The train No. 102 left Memphis at 2 o'clock this afternoon and is due at Louisville at 3:31 a. m. today. It is supposed the robber boarded the train at Clarksville.

The passengers were not disturbed and knew nothing of the robbery until it was reported by the messenger.

Will Ask a Rethinking.

Frankfort, June 23.—It develops that one of the hardest fights ever made before the court of appeals is to be made by the attorneys of the building and loan associations in their effort to obtain a rehearing of the case decided last Saturday.

Result of a Feud.

Belknap, Ala., June 23.—A shooting scrape occurred here this morning, the result of old disagreements, which has created the most intense excitement. In the melee Frank Riggs, a prominent merchant, shot and killed William Reese, a farmer, and W. A. Sewall, father-in-law of Riggs, was shot and is now thought to be dying.

Murder and Suicide.

Kansas, Minn., June 23.—Bert Vanstrand, a jealous lover, shot and killed his sweetheart, Miss Jennie Geosia, and then killed himself. The affair has created intense excitement here, as the parties are well known.

For Charity's Sake.

Lexington, Ky., June 22.—On next Thursday the young ladies of this city will take charge of and conduct the electric street cars to collect fares for the benefit of the Children's home.

GIRL INDICTED.

Miss Gaines Arrested for Accidentally Killing Her Cousin.

Mishap Occurred at Benton Several Months Ago.

Miss Ida Jones, a pretty 19-year-old girl of Marshall county, was indicted by the grand jury at Benton yesterday for involuntary manslaughter.

Only a few months since, while handling a pistol, she accidentally shot her cousin, Will Rudolph, a son of Deputy Sheriff Wm. Rudolph, who died shortly afterwards, almost prostrating the young lady with grief.

The shooting has always been considered an accident, and while the notoriety incurred by being indicted is unpleasant, the general opinion is that she will be acquitted on final trial. The case is set for Friday.

The grand jury returned thirty-two indictments before adjournment yesterday, most were for misdemeanors.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION.

Overseer Francis Laid Off By the Mayor

Until the Investigation is Completed.—Frank Sears Now "Boss."

The investigation of Overseer of the Chain Gang John Francis was resumed this morning at the city hall before Mayor Yeiser and Councilmen Farley, Williamson and Liebel. Several new witnesses were introduced but no evidence of importance was adduced.

At noon, after consulting the committee, Mayor Yeiser suspended Overseer Francis until the investigation shall have been concluded, and appointed Mr. Frank Sears temporary overseer. Mr. Tom Everts is this afternoon out with the chain gang, working for Robt. Barnhart.

It is thought that by tomorrow the inquiry will have been completed.

MAN IN THE CASE.

Lillie Baker Gets a Fine of $30 and Costs.

Lillie Baker, a corpulent female who has a home with Madeline Pearl Wilson, was charged in Judge Sanders' court this morning with assaulting Allie Tidwell, a boiled dove who lives with Annie Cox.

It appears that the Baker woman deliberately decoyed the other into a room and there proceeded to administer a severe beating, which lasted until Officer Senger, who had been detailed by Chief Singery, went out and separated them. The trouble was over a man.

The Baker woman was fined $30 and costs today, and the case against the other woman was dismissed.

Terrible Heat Wave.

New Orleans, June 23.—(3:30 p. m.)—A terrible heat wave has overcome this city. Ten deaths have already taken place, and fifty more are dying today. Horses and other stocks are dying by the hundreds.

Esther Cantata will be repeated at the Casino Theater, Ramona Park on next Thursday night, the 24th. Admission will be 25c for adults and 15c for children under 12 years of age. This amount does not include car fare.

THE NEW PITCHER

Is Here.—He is About Six Feet Three Inches.

WILL PITCH TODAY'S GAME.

The Grounds Are Said to Be in Good Condition.—Two Games Tomorrow.

OTHER BASEBALL NEWS OF INTEREST.

McLairne, the new Paducah pitcher, arrived at 2 o'clock this morning from Springfield, Ohio, and will pitch today's game. He stands six feet three inches in his bare feet, and is a second production of "Little Eva." He is said to be a good pitcher.

The home boys, as well as the Terre Haute team, have had a good rest, and an exciting game is promised for this afternoon.

Despite the heavy rains, the grounds are in good condition, and it is said that they were in good trim for a game yesterday, had it been deemed advisable to play one. The batting order of Paducah will be the same as usual.

FLY BALLS.

Pace is one of the most popular of the Terre Haute boys.

"More rain, more rest," is the motto of the Paducah club.

It hurts the Paducah boys to get roasted, especially when you tell the truth.

Dodd, the handsome Terre Haute center fielder, is a college boy and a resident of Chattanooga. He comes of a prominent family, captured a batting record of 1,000 in the Southern league last year, and is a p. d. nice all round fellow. He has played but one game with the Terre Hautes.

Some of the amateur clubs are very sore towards the Metropolis people. They claim that the pious inhabitants of our neighbor won't allow them to play base-ball inside the city limits on Sunday, for fear it will disturb someone on high, or the equanimity of their own implacable selves. The Metropolis boys ought to come up here and play, as there would be no money obtainable from them, and they could play with impunity.

Whalen, pitcher for the Cairo Baseball Club, and Maurice Levee had a conflict last evening in which the latter came out second best. The trouble commenced in the barroom of the European hotel, baseball headquarters, where the team boards, but finally spread out in a running fight on the streets, Farnbaker being on the retreat. He dodged into the Western Union telegraph office, but this proved no harbor against the ire of the pitcher, hence he got out of there and took to the street again. At Sixth and Levee the act culminated, and Maurice was saved from further punishment by the interference of bystanders. The trouble commenced by remarks of Farnbaker's, which Whalen construed as insulting and abusive.—Cairo Argus.

Revival Meetings.

Rev. L. T. Ward, of the Third Street Methodist church, began a series of meetings last night in the tent on Third street, between Ohio and Jackson. He is ably assisted by the Rev. Dr. Hamner, of Central Methodist church, Memphis, Rev. G. W. Banks, of Saffran Street Methodist church, Memphis, and Brothers Johnson and Barton, of the city.

Mr. George Mahan, of Memphis, is leading the song service. He is a noted singer.

Rev. Dr. Hamner preached an able sermon from the text Acts 2:1-5, which was strengthening to the church and Christians in general. At the morning service he preached from Acts 4:31 to a small but attentive audience. Dr. Hamner has no superior as a pulpit orator in the south. The Macon "Telegraph" has this to say:

"If there is any truth in the saying of Socrates, 'Show me an orator and I will show you a man that saw the mountains in his youth,' Dr. Hamner must have been born and reared among the mountains, for never has it been the good fortune of a people to hear so eloquent a divine orator as this variety of texts as the Tennessee orator, who has been in our midst for the past ten days. Of splendid physique, dignified bearing, rich voice and graceful mien, coupled with his earnestness, Dr. Hamner is the perfect preacher, the magnificent orator."

Dr. Hamner's visit to Macon has perhaps reached more people, been productive of more good and uplifted more hearts than the presence of any preacher in our city during its history, or at least in many years, and his near departure has filled the hearts not only of those who have come directly in contact with him, but those who have had the pleasure of hearing him preach, with unfeigned sorrow, and the prospect of his leaving our city so soon is almost unbearable.

Services every day at 10 a. m. 4 p. m. and 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

AN AFTERNOON WEDDING.

Miss Lizzie Alliston and Mr. L. E. Lockridge Married.

Rev. Davis, of Metropolis, Performed the Ceremony.—Will Reside Here.

Miss Lizzie Alliston, daughter of Mr. R. S. Alliston, of South Third street, was united in marriage at 1 o'clock this afternoon to Mr. Luther E. Lockridge, formerly of New Castle, Ind., but who has resided here since December.

Rev. Davis, of Metropolis, performed the ceremony, in the presence of quite a number of friends and relatives.

The bride is a pretty and attractive young lady, formerly of Metropolis, and Mr. Lockridge is a popular young man employed at the Kilgore heading factory. They will reside here.

MARRIED AT SMITHLAND.

Prominent Young People United This Morning.

Mr. Harry V. McChesney, county school superintendent of Livingston county, and one of the editors of the Smithland "Banner," and Miss Berna Frenell, a popular society young lady, were married at Smithland this morning, and arrived here on the Hopkins at 10 o'clock. They will leave this afternoon for Nashville to visit the exposition.

A New Bindery

Mr. Henry Mammen, the well known book binder, who has successfully been employed by the "Standard," "News" and "Register," has resigned with the latter and will open up, as soon as the building is ready, a book-binding business in the building formerly occupied by Michael's saloon, on Broadway, near Second.

A Card.

I desire to thank each and every one who were so exceedingly kind as to assist us in our recent cantata. Especially am I deeply grateful and indebted to Mr. Elliott Mitchell for his hearty support, interest and co-operation. The local press—"Daily Register," "News" and "Sun" for repeated favors. To every participant from the soloists, choruses, down to the children. To Messrs. Pinkerton, Rivers, Parham, Willis, and others. To Messrs. Boone, Caldwell and Parham.

There are many others whom I cannot mention here who, by their assistance, etc., have placed me under lasting obligations. Assured that every favor, great or small, is and shall ever be remembered and appreciated.

Yours very sincerely, CHAS. M. DAVIS, Director.

SOMEWHAT RACY

Was Today's Session of Police Court.

LILLIE BAKER'S BAD BREAK.

Mrs. Jennie Augustus Fined for Using Bad Language Towards Tom Moore.

OTHER CASES THAT WERE CONSIDERED.

Jennie Augustus was fined $3 and costs for using insulting language towards Tom Moore, who drives an ice wagon for G. W. Robertson in Judge Sanders' court this morning.

The trouble, it seems, originated from something Moore said about the woman, near Lally's grocery. He claims that he did not intend for her to hear it, but she overheard it and began to abuse him.

Moore Scott undertook to resent it, and looked for Moore the greater part of yesterday. When he found him he was whipped before he could get his coat off, near Second and Court streets, according to reports.

Scott was arrested by Constable Patton and taken before Justice Winchester, where he pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. Moore was taken before Justice Little by Constable Futrell and acquitted. The police got the woman.

Mrs. Augustus was recently sued for divorce by her husband, Dan Augustus, on account of her alleged relations with Scott, and Scott was sued by his wife for divorce on account of alleged relations with the Augustus woman.

The case against John Jones, charged with harboring a vicious dog which bit Mr. Desmond, night before last, was dismissed by Judge Sanders today.

Jones showed that he paid his license and killed the dog.

James Lucas, of Ripley, Tenn., and Ben Boyd, colored, were before Judge Sanders this morning on a charge of breach of the peace. Lucas was drunk and struck Boyd with his cork arm. When Boyd asked him why he did it, he started to strike him again and was knocked down. Lucas did not answer to his name this morning, and in addition to being fined $1 and costs, his bond was declared forfeited. The case against Boyd was dismissed.

George Dawson, colored, was fined $25 and sentenced to ten days in jail for carrying a pistol concealed in his boot. The charge was an old one.

The case against Robert Kyle, for shooting at James Doyle with intent to kill, was left open by Judge Sanders until in the morning. He said he desired to look over a decision bearing on the case.

He said the only question is whether Kyle used more force than was necessary in repelling the attack of Doyle. The latter admitted in his evidence that he struck Kyle twice with a poker, and Kyle claims he was advancing when the shot was fired.

As it is no doubt remembered, Kyle and Doyle's daughter had started in a buggy to a dance in the country when Doyle attempted to intercept them.

The case against Perry Owens, the boy charged with maliciously assaulting Chas. White, colored, was called in the police court this morning and continued until Monday.

The colored boy, as will no doubt be remembered, called Owens a vile name, and Owens struck him on the head with a club. White is now better, and Attorney Wheeler Campbell will assist in the prosecution.

There is one important witness, wanted by both sides, who is a cook on Supt. Hill's private car, on the N. C. & St. L. He will have to be found before the case can go to trial.

LOCKJAW

Is What Robert Mollett Has Now:

Is in a Dangerous Condition at the County Jail.

Robert Mollett, colored, who was assaulted by Rob Smith, colored, at the market house last week and struck over the right eye with a brick, is in a precarious condition at the county jail, and he may not recover.

Yesterday it was thought he would have lockjaw, and he seemed to suffer excruciating pain from the wound which is still badly swollen. It is feared that septicemia, or blood poisoning, has set in, in which case death is almost certain.

Smith is in jail for maliciously assaulting Mollett, and the latter is in jail for cutting Smith. He claims Smith struck him with the deadly missile from behind, just as he turned his head.

Mollett was slightly better this afternoon, but both eyes and his face was badly swollen.

Residence of M. Kahn Struck But Not Damaged.

The residence of Mr. M. Kahn, at Ninth and Monroe streets, was struck by lightning about 11 o'clock this morning, and a chimney was partially demolished. No shock was felt by anyone around, however, and the family knew nothing about it until told.

A Swimming Match.

George Stroud and George Augustus, two well known young men of the city, will have a swimming match in the LaBelle Park lake next Sunday afternoon. Both are expert swimmers.

Death.

Elzaria, the 1-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Coker, died last evening at the family residence on Jackson street. The funeral took place today.

The Chattanooga will tow no barge on her trip to Cairo and any boat that passes her will carry the mail.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL NOTES.

Few Items of Interest Out Today.

Chief Clerk Jones' family left last night for Greenville, Ill., to spend the summer.

Last night lightning burned out all the Illinois Central telephones during the storm.

A vestibule baggage car was brought in at 8 o'clock from Fulton to be given slight repairs. It will be taken back on No. 121.

Civil Engineer E. H. Bower came in last night and left at 8 o'clock for Lockport.

The pay car arrived this afternoon about 5 o'clock, and a portion of the men will be paid off before night.
The stores will be open for a couple of nights to afford the railroad people an opportunity to make desired purchases.

JUDGE TULLY'S COURT.

Two Fines and One Acquittal Recorded.

Josh Stringer and Charlotte Greer, colored, were tried before County Judge Tully this forenoon for immorality, and upon request of their attorney the lowest fine was assessed, $20 and costs.

Judge Tully thinks if they want to fine one for this offense, the authorities ought to arrest everybody who is guilty and make no discrimination.

Bill Watson, the tramp painter charged with stealing two paint brushes from Mr. Chas. Warren, was acquitted. He is said to be a morphine fiend as well as a drunkard.

Decorated cups and saucers, 38c per set; decorated plates, 38c per set, worth 50c each, Monday at Robins' Glass and Queensware Co.

Revival Meeting.

The revival at the Tenth street
Christian church continues with unabated interest. There was a good attendance last night, despite the threatening weather. Rev. Sheffer is an interesting talker and all who have heard him have gone away benefited by his sermon. All people are invited to attend the services at this church. Song services begin at 8 o'clock, preaching at 8:15. Mr.
Sheffer will begin a series of sermons of which he will preach the first tonight.

Maybe He Read the "Register."

This forenoon a stranger entered Yeiser Park and seating himself on a bench proceeded to read a paper. He fell asleep, and sat there through all the rain until completely drenched.
About 11 o'clock he arose and walked away as if nothing at all had happened.

Our sale Monday, June 28, will be a record breaker. Don't fail to take advantage of it. Robins' Glass and Queensware Co. 2334
